CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Document ID: POL-ETH-001
Entity: FD System Holdings
Effective Date: 10/22/2026
Approval: Board of Directors

MANDATE OF ZERO-TOLERANCE ETHICAL COMPLIANCE

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics ("Code") establishes the foundational legal and ethical standards governing all directors, executive officers, employees, contractors, and wholly-owned subsidiaries of FD System Holdings ("the Company"). Adherence to this Code is an express condition of employment and board service. The Company enforces a strict zero-tolerance policy regarding conflicts of interest, self-dealing, bribery, and deceptive commercial practices.

ARTICLE I: PURPOSE, SCOPE, AND ETHICAL FOUNDATION

Section 1.01 Institutional Integrity. The reputation and regulatory standing of FD System Holdings depend upon the uncompromising honesty, candor, and legal compliance of its personnel. Every covered individual bears a personal fiduciary duty to act in good faith, uphold applicable statutory frameworks in all operating jurisdictions, and prioritize long-term institutional integrity over short-term commercial gain.

Section 1.02 Universal Applicability. No officer, director, or employee possesses the authority to direct, approve, or condone any act that violates applicable law or the provisions of this Code. Ignorance of these standards, or reliance upon perceived commercial pressure from supervisors, shall never constitute an affirmative defense in internal disciplinary proceedings.

ARTICLE II: ZERO-TOLERANCE POLICY ON CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Section 2.01 Prohibition of Divided Loyalty. A "Conflict of Interest" arises whenever an individual's private pecuniary, familial, or external professional interests interfere, or appear to interfere, with the objective performance of their duties to FD System Holdings. Personnel must strictly avoid any relationship or transaction that impairs independent business judgment.

Section 2.02 Corporate Opportunities & Self-Dealing. Covered individuals are prohibited from (a) appropriating for personal benefit any business, investment, or intellectual property opportunity discovered through the use of corporate property, information, or position; (b) using corporate resources for personal gain; or (c) competing directly or indirectly with the Company.

CONFLICT CATEGORY	PROHIBITED ACTIVITY / THRESHOLD	MANDATORY GOVERNANCE PROTOCOL
Financial Interests	Holding >1% equity or any material debt in a competitor, vendor, or client.	Immediate written disclosure to General Counsel; mandatory divestiture or recusal.
Related-Party Dealings	Directing corporate contracts to entities owned or managed by immediate family.	Strictly prohibited without prior Audit & Oversight Committee written approval.
Outside Employment	Serving as an officer, director, or consultant to any commercial competitor or supplier.	Zero tolerance; requires immediate termination of external role or employment.
Gifts & Gratuities	Accepting cash equivalents, lavish hospitality, or gifts.	Forfeiture of item to Compliance Office and logging in the Gift Registry.

ARTICLE III: FAIR DEALING AND MARKET INTEGRITY STANDARDS

Section 3.01 Fair Commercial Dealing. Each employee, officer, and director shall endeavor to deal fairly and transparently with the Company's clients, suppliers, regulatory counterparts, competitors, and fellow employees. No individual shall take unfair advantage of any party through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged or confidential information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any other intentional unfair-dealing practice.

Section 3.02 Antitrust and Competition Compliance. FD System Holdings competes vigorously but strictly within the bounds of domestic and international antitrust and competition statutes. Personnel are strictly forbidden from entering into formal or informal understandings with competitors regarding price-fixing, bid-rigging, market or territory allocation, boycotts, or the exchange of non-public pricing and capacity data.

Section 3.03 Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption. The Company strictly prohibits bribery, kickbacks, facilitation payments, or corrupt inducements of any kind, whether dealings involve domestic government officials, foreign public officials (under the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, UK Bribery Act, or local equivalents), or private commercial counterparties.

ARTICLE IV: STEWARDSHIP OF CORPORATE ASSETS & INSIDE INFORMATION

Section 4.01 Protection of Assets and Records. All personnel are responsible for safeguarding the Company's physical, financial, and intellectual assets against theft, carelessness, waste, and unauthorized disclosure. Corporate funds and accounting ledgers must accurately and fairly reflect all transactions in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). Falsification of any book, record, or expense report is grounds for immediate termination and referral to law enforcement.

Section 4.02 Insider Trading Prohibition. Personnel who possess Material Non-Public Information ("MNPI") regarding FD System Holdingsor any third-party enterprise with which the Company conducts business are strictly prohibited from buying or selling securities of such entities, or "tipping" MNPI to any family member, associate, or external party.

ARTICLE V: WAIVERS, ADMINISTRATION, AND ENFORCEMENT

Section 5.01 Strict Enforcement and Discipline. Confirmed violations of this Code—including failure to report a known violation or providing false testimony during a compliance investigation—will result in decisive disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination of employment for cause, clawback of incentive compensation, and civil or criminal prosecution.

Section 5.02 Executive & Director Waivers. Any waiver of any provision of this Code for executive officers or members of the Board of Directors may be granted solely by an affirmative vote of disinterested members of the Board of Directors or its designated Audit & Oversight Committee, and shall be promptly disclosed to shareholders and regulatory authorities as required by law.
